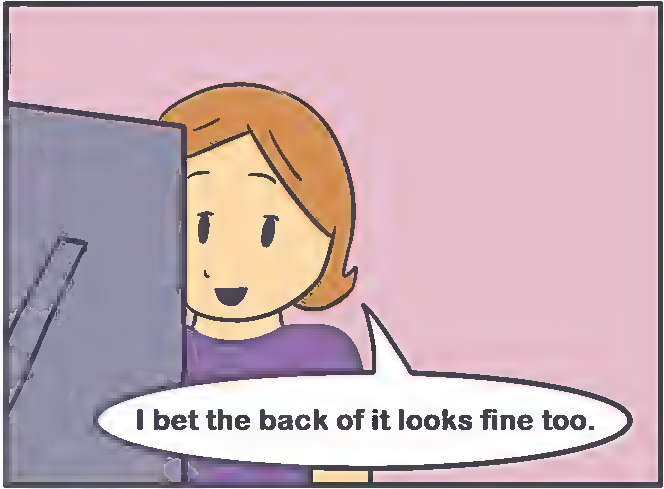
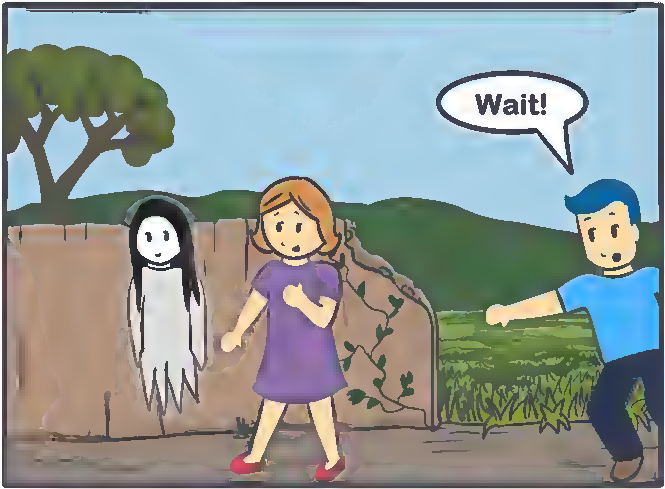
Well the front of my hair looks fine.



I bet the back of it looks fine too.

Why is she looking at me weirdly?

Geez, haven't you seen a foreigner before?



Wait!

What?

Have you seen the back of your head?

You literally have a bird's nest in your hair.

What? How did that happen?
I told you to brush your hair regularly.

Why didn't you tell me?
There are birds in it!
Oh... you are talking to your ghost...

They are so cute!
I want them to stay
so I didn't tell you.
